(gazetted clean text of the Law in “Official Gazette of B&H”, No. 20/2, 18/05, 100/08 and 75/09 – unofficial version)

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Scope of Application

The Law on Deposit Insurance of Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter: the Law) regulates the establishment, status, operations, governance and management, authorization, responsibilities and authorities and financing of the Deposit Insurance Agency of Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter: the Agency).

This Law is intended to provide, within the constraints and limitations of this Law, for the protection of deposits of Natural Persons in banks licensed either by the Banking Agency of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter: the FBA) or the Banking Agency of the Republika Srpska (hereinafter: the RSBA) or any successor(s) of these agencies.

Article 2. Definitions

The “Banking Agencies” are defined for purposes of this Law as the FBA and the RSBA, or their legal successor(s).

The “Deposit Insurance Fund “ (hereinafter: the Fund) is defined for purposes of this Law as the account of the Agency that is established pursuant to Article 11 of this Law.

A “Depositor” is defined for purposes of this Law as a Natural Person or Legal entity who holds an Eligible Deposit in a Member Bank.

An “Eligible Deposit” is defined for purposes of this Law as the aggregate of all assets deriving from deposits, savings accounts or bank certificates deposited by a Depositor in a Member Bank less the exclusions of Article 5 of this Law. Eligible Deposits form the basis of the deposit insurance premium calculation.

An “Entity” is defined for purposes of this Law as either the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter: the Federation) or the Republika Srpska.

A “Government Entity” is defined for purposes of this Law as any domestic or foreign user of government funds, notwithstanding its level of governmental authority, i.e. State, Entity, Cantonal, or municipal authority as well as any legal entity, including pension funds and health insurance funds, that is owned or controlled by such users of government funds.

A “Group” is defined for purposes of this Law as a group of companies that directly or indirectly control a Member Bank as well as the subsidiaries of these companies and of the Member Bank.

An “Insurance Event” is defined for purposes of this Law as the event that requires the payment of deposit insurance according to the provisions of this Law.

An “Insured Deposit” is defined for purposes of this Law as that portion (KM 20.000 at maximum) of an Eligible Deposit of Natural Person that is covered by insurance through the Deposit Insurance Fund.

A “Legal Entity” is defined for purposes of this Law as a business company, enterprise, association, institution or foundation registered in Bosnia and Herzegovina excluding any Government Entity.

A “Natural Person” is defined for purposes of this Law as an individual, regardless of his / her citizenship or nationality.

A “Member Bank” is defined for purposes of this Law as a bank that is participating in the deposit insurance program of Bosnia and Herzegovina according to the provisions of this Law.

The “State” is defined for purposes of this Law as Bosnia and Herzegovina.

II. DEPOSIT PROTECTION

Article 3. Principle

The Agency shall insure all Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons in the Member Banks within the State.

In case of an Insurance Event, the Agency shall commit itself to reimburse the Insured Deposit portion of Eligible Deposits to Natural Persons subject to the limitations of Article 4 and the exclusions of Article 5 of this Law.

Article 4. Limitations

The maximum amount of an Insured Deposit, including any accrued interest, to be reimbursed by the Agency per Natural Persons per Member Bank shall be the Eligible Deposit less legal or contractual debt owed to the Member bank by the Natural Person or KM 20,000 which ever is smaller.

The Agency’s Management Board, upon the recommendation of the Agency’s Director, shall issue a Decision about changes of the level of insured deposit amount and shall publish it in the “Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina”.

For purposes of payout, any assets of a Natural Person denominated in foreign currency shall be converted into KM based on the average exchange rates of the Central Bank of Bosnia and Herzegovina (hereinafter: the Central Bank) as of the date of the Insurance Event.

Interest accrued on Eligible Deposits are calculated only until the date of the Insurance Event.

If a Natural Person is a joint accountholder, the each Depositor’s share in the joint account is calculated equally between the accountholders unless proof to the contrary is provided by each and every accountholder. However, the total pay-out for any joint account will be limited to the amount provided by this Law for a single Natural Person per Member Bank.

Article 5. Exclusions

Eligible Deposit shall exclude the following assets:

1. Assets deriving from operations that have been declared illegal by court decision not subject to any further appeal.
2. Assets kept in any account whereby the account title is not transparent as to its ownership or any non-nominative deposit.
3. Assets kept in a bank's safe deposit box.
4. Assets held in any kind of safekeeping custody arrangement with a bank.
5. Assets deposited by other domestic or foreign banks on their own behalf and for their own account.
6. Assets from domestic or foreign Government Entities.
7. Assets from domestic or foreign insurance companies.
8. Assets from domestic or foreign undertakings for collective investment.
9. Assets from domestic or foreign pension and retirement funds not considered as Government Entity.
10. Assets from such Member Bank's own supervisory board members, directors, managers, members of the audit board, shareholders of at least five (5) percent of the Member Bank's capital, persons responsible for carrying out the statutory audits of the Member Bank's accounting documents and Depositors of similar status in other companies in the same Group as such Member Bank.
11. Assets from immediate family, within the third degree of consanguinity or marriage, of persons as referred in above item 10. and from third parties acting on behalf of persons as referred in above item 10.
12. Assets from companies in the same Group as each Member Bank.
13. Assets for which the Depositor has obtained from the same Member Bank rates and / or any other financial concession which may have helped to aggravate the Member Bank's financial condition.
14. Assets from companies, which may be excluded from deposit insurance coverage by any other special law or governmental directive.
15. Debt securities issued by such Member Bank and any other liabilities arising out of such Member Bank's own acceptances and promissory notes.

16. Assets from Micro credit organizations.

Article 6. Membership Participation

All banks licensed by the Banking Agencies and who meet the Agency's criteria for membership as stated in Article 7 of this Law, shall be required to become a Member Bank.

The Agency must determine that a bank meets all requirements of this Law, as well as those of the Law on Banks, of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina or the Republika Srpska, before issuing a membership certificate to that bank.

A bank, that has been determined by the Agency, as eligible to become a Member Bank will be informed of that fact by the Agency and is required to submit membership application as well as information form, whose contents are determined by the Agency.

In addition to documents from Paragraph 3 of this Article, a Bank shall provide the Agency with a copy of the latest external fiscal year audit of the bank performed on the basis of International Accounting Standards, or an opening balance sheet for a newly established bank.

Newly formed banks are required to submit to the Agency evidence of their ability to meet the membership criteria for deposit insurance for the next three calendar years starting from the day when the bank is granted a banking license.

In the event of a dispute arising between the Agency and the Banking Agencies in the determination of the eligibility of a bank to be granted or to retain a membership certificate or a banking license, a joint decision on that bank's eligibility must be agreed between these agencies before the membership certificate or the banking license can be issued or revoked.

Final decision about membership is the sole authority of the Agency.

No bank under provisional administration may apply for membership participation.

Article 7. Membership Criteria

For participation in deposit insurance as a Member Bank, in addition to being licensed by the competent banking agency, or their legal successor(s) and meeting the provisions of this Law, all Member Banks must meet the following criteria:

- a) capital;
- b) liquidity;
- c) asset quality;
- d) governance;
- e) profitability;
- f) accounting standards;
- g) reserve;
- h) market risks.

The Management Board of the Agency shall determine by its decision the quality standards for aforesaid criteria which shall be published in the "Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina".

A Bank can participate in the deposit insurance program as a Member Bank only if its latest and currently still valid rating on a composite basis given by the competent banking agency or their legal successor(s) is rated 3 or higher and with no individual rating component rated 5.

In addition to aforesaid criteria, a Member Bank must also meet the following criteria:

a) Financial and other requirements established by the Law on Banks;

All Member Banks must further meet safety and soundness criteria, established by the relevant Banking Agency.

The Agency shall, on an ongoing basis, monitor the Member Banks' business operations in regard to their compliance with the membership criteria.

If a Member Bank violates membership criteria, the Agency shall undertake actions towards that bank in order to have the Member Bank complied with criteria from this Law.

If criteria from Paragraph 1 and 3 of this Article are violated, the Agency's Management Board shall, by its decision, determine actions to be undertaken toward Member Bank.

The Agency's Management Board shall once a year review this Law in relationship to the Law on Banks of the Federation or the Republika Srpska, in light of the above criteria, to maintain harmony between these laws.

Article 7a.

Banks are obliged to provide the Agency with reports prescribed by the competent banking agencies or their successors, External Audit Report and reports prescribed by the Agency itself, within set deadlines.

For evaluation of the bank's eligibility to participate in deposit insurance program, the Agency shall conduct its assessment of documents from Paragraph 1 of this Article as well as on-site visitations to a bank to confirm information received or from information received from the FBA or RSAB or their successor(s).

The Agency shall prescribe the manner of keeping records on deposits in Member Banks for the reporting of relevant data to the Agency that shall be regulated by the Membership Contract.

Article 8. Membership Contract and Membership Certificate

The Agency and each Member Bank will sign a membership contract prepared by the Agency at the time a bank becomes a participant in the Fund.

The membership contract will be identical for each Member Bank and will specify the rights and obligations of the Agency and a Member Bank including the appropriate notification procedures that the Agency must observe in the event of a payout of deposit insurance.

The new Member Bank will pay a one time membership certificate fee at the date the membership contract is signed and the Agency will issue the Member Bank with a membership certificate at the time the membership contract is signed. Both of these actions must occur for a bank to become a Member Bank in the Fund.

The Agency's Management Board, on the recommendation of the Director, will set the level of the membership certificate fee and that decision will be published in the Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The membership certificate fee will be used to defray the costs involved in its ongoing relationships with the Member Banks and will be the same fee assessed for all Member Banks.

Article 9. Display Material

The Agency will provide display material, including the Agency's logo, that must be exhibited prominently and all times by all Member Banks.

The Member Bank may also provide its own display material evidencing its participation in deposit insurance as long as the material's design is compatible with the Agency's official logo.

All display material is to be approved by the Agency as regards design contents and usage.

Article 10. Insurance Premium

With the exception of item 14 of Article 5 and, after excluding assets as defined by all other items of Article 5 of this Law, average total Eligible Deposits as per the end of each month increased for accrued interest shall be used as insurance premium base for a Member Bank participating in deposit insurance.

The premium shall be paid quarterly in advance by the first day of each quarter, based on the average balance of the eligible deposits in the previous quarter. The quarters begin the first day of January, April, July and October.

The Agency shall bill each Member Bank with an invoice for the deposit insurance premium not later than 10 days before the premium is due for payment.

The membership contract shall define the procedures for the calculation of the premium to be paid by Member Banks.

At a minimum of once a year, the Management Board of the Agency shall determine the level of the insurance premium rate of all Member Banks, based on recommendation provided by the Director of the Agency.

At the beginning of the fourth calendar quarter, the Agency will publish the existing insurance premium rate and the rate that will be effective the following calendar year. The Agency reserves the right to adjust the rate at any time, according to the needs of the Agency, but the new rate will not become effective until the following calendar quarter after notification to the Member Banks.

Decisions regarding the insurance premium rate shall be published in the Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina before the adjustment to the insurance premium rate becomes effective.

The Management Board of the Agency shall have the right to establish a system of ranking for the purposes of setting insurance premium rates for individual Member Banks based on that ranking or to accept, for this purpose, any rating system established by the respective Banking Agencies.

Article 11. Deposit Insurance Fund

The Agency shall open the Fund account in the Central Bank and shall deposit the premiums received from Member Banks into said Fund account.

Premium proceeds referred to in Article 10 shall be used exclusively for increasing the capital of the Fund.

The Fund can also include donor funds subject to approval by the Agency's Management Board.

The Agency shall invest the capital of the Fund according to an investment policy that has been approved by the Management Board of the Agency based on the proposal of the Director of the Agency (hereinafter: the Investment Policy).

In accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Agency shall invest the capital of the Fund in fixed income securities issued by, or guaranteed by, member countries of the European Union, European Union governmental agencies, European supranational agencies as well as in fixed income securities issued or guaranteed by the government or governmental agencies of the United States of America.

The Agency may also invest the capital of the Fund in fixed income securities or other debt instruments issued by European Union banks or companies or United States of America based banks or companies with the highest ratings. Such banks or companies must have a minimum quality rating of "A" or "P1" or better, or equivalent thereof, according to an internationally recognized bond-rating agency.

All investments of the Fund, in accordance with the Investment Policy, shall be undertaken with a view of preserving its capital and maintaining liquidity.

Article 12. Membership Cessation with Insurance Payout

12.1 General provisions for membership cessation with insurance payout

The cancellation of membership in the deposit insurance program, for any reason other than the situations described in Article 13 of this Law, can only result from an action on the part of the Member Bank's respective banking agency.

Upon official notification of the loss of a Member Bank's banking license or upon official notification of the appointment of a Provisional Administrator, the Agency's Management Board is to be notified of such action by the Agency's Director. The subsequent loss of membership in the deposit insurance program, for any reason as described in this Article of this Law, is to be confirmed by a Decision of the Agency's Management Board on the recommendation of the Agency's Director. The Agency must publish this Decision in the Official Gazette of Bosnia and Herzegovina and additionally must inform the FBA or the RSBA, or their successor(s), as appropriate.

If a Member Bank is notified that its participation in deposit insurance is being terminated for reasons as provided for in this Article, the Member Bank is obliged to immediately inform, on an official basis and in written form, all of its Natural Persons of that fact.

In the event of an insurance deposit payout, the rights of the Natural Persons, limited to the amount of insurance payout, are legally conveyed to the Agency, by way of cessio legis.

12.2 The payout of deposit insurance is limited to the following situations:

12.2.1 Loss of the banking license of a Member Bank by action of Banking Agency

In accordance with the several provisions of Article 12, as well as the limitations and the exclusions of Articles 4 and 5 of this Law, the Agency is obliged to pay the insured amount of Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons without undue delay and to start the payment process not later than 60 days from the day the license of the former Member Bank was revoked. All payments for reimbursement of Insured Deposits must be completed within 90 days from the day the Member Bank's license is revoked.

12.2.2 Loss of banking license of a Member Bank in a voluntary winding-up of bank's operations

Upon the appointment of a Liquidator by the Banking Agency to manage the process of voluntary winding-up of a Member Bank's operations, the Liquidator shall, within 60 days, pay all insured amounts of Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons, in full or on a pro rata basis limited only by the bank's available funds. Any shortfall in the payment of Insured Deposits of Natural Persons will be made by the Fund according to the process described in Paragraph 2 of Article 12.2.2.

In accordance with the limitations and the exclusions of Articles 4 and 5 of this Law, the Agency is obliged to pay any remaining insured amounts of Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons that were not paid in accordance with the provision of Paragraph 1 of Article 12.2.2 without undue delay and to start the payment process not later than 60 days from the day the license of the former Member Bank was revoked in the situation of a voluntary winding-up of a Member Bank's operations according to provisions governed by the Law on Banks. All payments for reimbursement of Insured Deposits of Natural Persons must be completed within 90 days from the day the Member Bank's license is revoked.

12.2.3 Appointment of Provisional Administrator of a Member Bank

In accordance with the limitations and the exclusions of Articles 4 and 5 of this Law, the Agency is obliged to pay the insured amount of Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons without undue delay. In the case of a Provisional Administrator appointed for a Member Bank, the payment process will be primarily dependent upon the recommendation of that Provisional Administrator and the acceptance of that recommendation by the respective banking agency.

During the first 60 day period after the appointment of the Provisional Administrator of a Member Bank it is to be determined by the Provisional Administrator that, if the resolution of the Member bank's problems is in process, the Agency, with official notification of that situation by the respective banking agency, may delay the starting of the payment process an additional 30 days pending payment by the Provisional Administrator of all Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons, in full or on a pro rata basis limited by the bank's available funds. Should it be determined within that 90 day period the banking license is to be revoked, and after the Provisional Administrator has paid all Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons, in full or on a pro rata basis limited only by the bank's available funds, any shortfall in the payment of Insured Deposits of Natural Persons will be paid by the Fund. All payments for reimbursement of the Insured Deposits of Natural Persons must be completed within 150 days from the day the Member Bank's Provisional Administrator was appointed.

12.3 Obligations of Depositors Natural Persons

In each of the situations described above, the Depositors Natural Persons shall be obliged to submit, along with the payment request, evidence of their legal ownership of the Eligible Deposit for which reimbursement is claimed.

Irrespective of the reason for the insurance payout at a Member Bank, no claim from a Depositor for an insurance payout will be accepted after 12 months from the date of the loss of its banking license by the Member Bank.

Article 13. Membership Suspension or Termination without Insurance Payout

13.1 General provisions for suspension or termination of deposit insurance

The suspension or termination of membership in the deposit insurance program, for any reason other than the situations described in Article 12 of this Law, can only result from a Decision of the Agency's Management Board on the recommendation of the Agency's Director. The Agency must officially inform the FBA or the RSBA, or their successor(s), as appropriate and publish this Decision in the Official Gazette of the State.

The Member Bank that has been notified that its Member Bank status is being suspended or terminated shall also make a public announcement, by conventional methods of publication and notification, that new deposits of Natural Persons accepted by the bank will not be insured.

The Agency shall publish notice by conventional methods of publication and notification ten days prior to the actual suspension or termination of deposit insurance of Natural Persons in a Member Bank whose deposit insurance is being suspended or terminated for reasons other than provided for by Article 12 of this Law. This notice shall also be published in the BIH Official Gazette.

In the event of the suspension or termination of a Member Bank's participation in deposit insurance, the Agency's decision shall be final and binding and may be disputed only in the proceeding before the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

13.2 Suspension of deposit insurance without insurance payout

The suspension of deposit insurance is limited to the situations of the nonpayment by a Member Bank of any membership fee or the nonpayment of the insurance premium for one quarter.

Deposits of Natural Persons taken before the date of suspension of deposit insurance pursuant to this Article shall continue to be insured according to the following:

- for a period of 90 days beyond the date of suspension of deposit insurance, or
- until maturity of the individual deposit, whichever is longer.

These deposits shall be insured only at the same level as at the date the Member Bank was notified of the suspension of its deposit insurance.

New deposits of Natural Persons, or additional funds added to existing Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons, taken after the date the Member Bank was notified of insurance suspension will not be insured.

The Member Bank is required to continue its premium payments to the Agency as long as any insurance cover is provided beyond the date of deposit insurance suspension because of the maturity of a deposit and the premium amount will be based only on those Deposits so insured.

The Member Bank must return its original membership certificate to the Agency within five business days of being notified of the suspension of its deposit insurance. Should a Member Bank have its participation in deposit insurance restored prior to the termination of its participation in deposit insurance, the original membership certificate will be returned to the reinstated Member Bank without signing a new membership contract or the assessment of a new membership certificate fee.

13.3 Termination of deposit insurance without insurance payout

The termination of deposit insurance is limited to the situation of the nonpayment by a Member Bank of the insurance premium for more than one consecutive quarter.

Deposits of Natural Persons taken before the date of termination of deposit insurance pursuant to this Article shall only continue to be insured according to the provisions and limitations of Paragraph 13.2 of this Article.

Should a Member Bank have its participation in deposit insurance restored, but only after the termination of its participation in deposit insurance, the original membership certificate will not be returned to the reinstated Member Bank but a new membership contract will be signed and a new membership certificate will be issued and a membership certificate fee will be assessed.

13.4 Termination of deposit insurance in situations of imposition of external measures

If a decision rendered or action taken by an international or state institution or body or organization results in the cessation of Member Bank's operation for reasons other than violation of provisions of the applicable Law on Banks or this Law, the Agency will not pay deposit insurance for the Insured Deposit portion of Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons of the Member Bank.

III. DEPOSIT INSURANCE AGENCY

Article 14. Establishment of Agency

There is hereby established by this Law a Deposit Insurance Agency of Bosnia and Herzegovina that shall consist of an Agency head office and with branches in each Entity. The Agency may open additional organizational units in other towns of the State as appropriate but only if the proposed unit is to be fiscally viable from the date of its opening.

The branches or other organizational units shall have no legal status or authority independent from the Agency. Any additional branch or organizational unit of the Agency can only be established by a Decision made by the Management Board of the Agency and the Agency's Management Board shall appoint Branch Directors for all branches of the Agency.

The Agency is an independent, non-profit legal entity with full authority under the law of the State. In particular, the Agency shall have the capacity to contract, to acquire and to dispose of movable and immovable property, and to be a party to legal proceedings.

The Agency shall have its head office in Banja Luka with a branch in Sarajevo and a branch in Banja Luka. The Agency may allocate its Agency level functions between the branch locations as appropriate.

The Agency shall have a seal, which contains the title of the Agency and the coat of arms of the State. The head office and each branch shall have an identical seal bearing the words "Deposit Insurance Agency of Bosnia and Herzegovina", with the name and location of that branch being the only difference allowed for the seal's design. The seals of the Agency and of its branches shall include identical coats of arms in accordance with the Law on Coats of Arms of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Article 15. Duties and Powers

The main functions of the Agency are the following:

- (a) insuring Eligible Deposits of Natural Persons in Member Banks in accordance with this Law;
- (b) issuing Membership Certificates to those banks who qualify for participation in the deposit insurance program;
- (c) revoking, through suspension or termination, Membership Certificates;
- (d) investing the assets of the Deposit Insurance Fund pursuant to the restrictions of the Agency's Investment Policy and in accordance with this Law;
- (e) paying out deposit insurance in the event of a Member Bank's cessation of operations according to this Law; and
- (f) enacting bylaws regulating deposit insurance and the operations of the Agency in accordance with this Law.

In the event the Agency and a Member Bank are unable to agree on the accuracy of any report required by this Law or by Decision of the Agency's Management Board, the Agency shall have right to require an audit of a Member Bank's business and the Agency has the right to engage an independent auditor to assess accuracy of the reports submitted by a Member Bank to the Agency. Costs of such audit shall be born by the party whose original interpretation was assessed by the independent audit as wrong.

When the Agency determines that a Member Bank does not maintain its obligations for its payment of the insurance premium to the Agency or does not maintain any other of its financial obligations to the Agency, the Agency is authorized to:

- (a) Advise formally the FBA or the RSBA, or their successor(s), as appropriate, that the Agency plans to take measures as regards a Member Bank's action or condition that may affect the membership of that bank in the Fund.
- (a) File charges with an appropriate court.
- (b) Institute the suspension and termination procedures as provided for by Articles 12 and 13 of this Law.

The Agency shall have the right of inspection of any and all Eligible Deposits in its Member Banks and may request information on Eligible Deposits in writing. The Member Bank has two business days to acknowledge the receipt of the request and 10 business days to comply with any request for information on Deposits.

Article 16. Independence and Immunity

Within the scope of its operations, and in accordance with this Law, the Agency manages its operations on an independent basis.

From the establishment of the Agency, the Director of the Agency, its Branch Director(s), and its staff, as well as other individuals recommended or appointed by the Agency to perform certain activities within the scope of this Law, cannot be prosecuted in a criminal or civil law procedure, for any action conducted in good faith, and in accordance with this Law, during the execution or implementation of any task within their authority.

The Agency shall bear the expenses, or reimburse the same, for any of its staff, at whatever level of position, for any legal proceedings initiated against the employee from whatever source for actions conducted in good faith in executing or implementing their duties within the scope of this Law or their delegated authorities if those expenses are not reimbursable from the party(ies) bring suit against the Agency or its staff.

Article 17. The Statute of the Agency

The Agency's Statute particularly determines:

- (a) the Agency's organization and operational manner;
- (b) the Agency's authorities and working manner;
- (c) the Agency's authorities for all representations;
- (d) the rights, obligations and responsibilities of persons carrying out activities and tasks with special authorizations and responsibilities; and
- (e) all other organizational issues related to the Agency's establishment, management and operation.

Management Board shall obligatorily review the Agency's Statute, on an annual basis, for its harmonization with changes in legislation that affects, either directly or indirectly, this Law.

Article 18. Management Board

18.1 Composition

The Management Board is the sole governing body of the Agency.

The Management Board shall consist of five members. This Law prescribes the composition and selection of the membership of the Management Board.

The Governor of the Central Bank, or his / her nominee, is ex officio a member of the Management Board and the Minister for Treasury of the Institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina, or his / her nominee, is ex officio a member of the Management Board.

The Governing Board of the Central Bank has the right to appoint one member of the Management Board and, within the limitations of the respective laws of each Entity, the Minister of Finance of the Federation and the Minister of Finance of the Republika Srpska each has the right to appoint one member from their respective entities to the Management Board.

Members of the Management Board, who are not ex officio members, must be individuals who have achieved reputations for financial or banking expertise and who also possess reputations for high moral standards by which to perform their entrusted duties.

The Management Board shall elect a Chairman and a Vice Chairman from among its members. The Directors of the Banking Agencies, should they be appointed to this Management Board by one of the appointing authorities, cannot serve as either Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Management Board.

Individuals who are proposed as members of the Management Board must present a written statement as proof of their eligibility and a confirmation of acceptance in case of their appointment.

The mandate of Management Board members, who are appointed by the authority of a position named in this article, other than that of the memberships specifically established on an ex officio basis by this Law, shall be five years.

Any person, other than a member who is an ex officio member, may be appointed a member of the Management Board of the Agency for two consecutive terms only, so that during the appointing for each next mandate, at least two members from a previous mandate of Management Board shall be appointed.

Management Board members cannot be related to one another, or to the Agency's Director or the Agency's Branch Directors, by blood or marriage, up to the third degree of consanguinity.

Management Board members cannot be executives or members of the supervisory or management board of any Member Bank, or any other bank licensed within the State, during the course of their mandate.

Management Board members cannot own, either directly or indirectly, more than five percent of the equity of any Member Bank and must disclose in writing to the Management Board any equity interest that is held in a Member Bank by themselves or by any one related to them, by blood or marriage, up to the third degree of consanguinity.

Management Board members must provide to the Agency a written disclosure of any and all interests they, or any one related to them, by blood or marriage, up to the third degree of consanguinity, have in any other bank or commercial enterprise in which they own more than five percent of a bank's or an enterprise's equity.

18.2 Removal, suspension and release of members

A majority of the membership of the Management Board has the right to remove a member of the Management Board for criminal or illegal conduct in breach or contravention of duties in connection with serving on the Management Board. The subsequent appointment of an individual to that vacancy shall be in compliance with this Law as to the particular source of membership appointing authority for the member being replaced.

It is the duty and responsibility of the Management Board to inform the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina of any criminal or illegal conduct of any member of the Management Board.

A Member of the Management Board shall be automatically suspended if acting in contradiction with any of the last four paragraphs of Article 18.1. of this Law.

A Member of the Management Board is responsible for notification to the Management Board on his / her status referred to in the last four paragraphs of Article 18.1. of this Law.

During the course of term on the Management Board, Management Board members cannot be prosecuted by a criminal or civil legal process for any action conducted in accordance with this Law and in good faith consistent with their duties as members of the Management Board

A member of the Management Board may be released of his/her function before the mandate expires upon personal request of the Member.

Any person appointed to be, in lieu of a member who has been removed, suspended or released, a member of the Management Board shall perform this duty until the end of mandate of his/her predecessor.

18.3 Sessions

Sessions of the Management Board may be held on an ad hoc basis but must be held at least once each calendar quarter.

The Management Board shall set its meeting schedule to provide that its meetings will be held alternately at each of the locations of the Agency's branches on a regular basis.

The Chairman shall convene sessions of Management Board. The Chairman shall also convene a special session upon the request of the Director of the Agency or upon the request of two members of the Management Board, but no later than 14 days from the day of submission of the request, otherwise the person who submitted the request shall be authorized for convening the special session.

Written invitation for the session of Management Board, in which date, time of its commencement, place and the agenda of session shall be delivered to the members of Management Board no later than 7 days before the date of holding of the session. The materials for each of the items shall accompany invitation for session on the agenda.

Persons who are not members of Management Board may be present at the session only based upon written invitation by the Chairman.

For holding the session of the Management Board, a quorum of majority of the entire number of members is required. The Management Board shall issue its decisions by a majority of votes of the entire number of members.

The Chairman or any member of Management Board shall not vote on the issues that relate to himself/herself personally.

The Agency's Director and Branch Director shall attend each session of the Management Board as non-voting participants.

The Chairman may decide that the Agency's Director and Branch Director(s) may not attend a particular session of the Management Board and must give a reason for the decision to the Director and Branch Director as well as to the Management Board

The Agency's Management Board, upon the recommendation of the Agency's Director, shall appoint advisors of the Management Board. These advisors shall be appointed from the group of banks, Bank Association or donors.

Additionally, each donor agency or nation, domestic or foreign, shall have the right to appoint an advisor to the Agency's Management Board. Rights and liabilities of these advisors shall be regulated by an agreement signed jointly by the Agency's Management Board and those donor agencies or nations.

18.4 Tasks

The Management Board shall, in particular:

1. Appoint the Agency's Director and the Agency's Branch Directors.
2. Elect the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Management Board.
3. Approve the Agency's Statute and its other general enactments.
4. Approve all regulations, policies, guidelines and fees for the management and operation of the Agency and its Fund as required by this Law, any law of the State or by sound and prudent management practices.
