- (7) For ethyl alcohol a bank guarantee shall be obligatorily submitted, which the Authority shall accept on the amount of calculated excise and which shall be discharged by taking over control stamps for excisable goods for which ethyl alcohol is used as reproduction material.

Article 19

- (1) Interest in the amount of 0.06% per day shall be paid on the amount of excise duty, which has not been paid within a legally prescribed period and on to a prescribed account.
- (2) The enforced collection shall be carried out from the taxpayer that has not paid excise duty within a prescribed period and in a prescribed manner.

(3) The responsible Tax Administration shall carry out the enforced collection procedure by issuing an order for enforced collection through transfer of funds from the taxpayer's account on to an appropriate account for tax payment.

(4) If the tax liability cannot be fully collected in the manner referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the responsible Tax Administration shall issue a decision on enforced collection of tax from the taxpayer's entire property.

(5) The expenses of enforced collection shall be borne by the taxpayer.

IX - TAX RECORDS

Article 20

(1) The taxpayer shall be required to make:

1. a monthly calculation of the tax liability and submit it to the tax authority maximum until the tenth day of the current month for the previous month;
2. an annual calculation of the tax liability and submit it to the tax authority maximum until 10th March of the current year for the previous year.

Article 21

(1) The taxpayer that produces, imports and/or trades in excise products in another way within the meaning of Article 5 shall be required to keep daily records on their production, importation, procurement, trade and condition.

(2) The taxpayer shall be required to make non-bookkeeping records, which should contain data not contained in the books and which pertain to tax bases and tax rates on the basis of which the calculation and payment of excise duty has been carried out.

Article 22

(1) When making an annual calculation of the tax liability, the taxpayer shall be required to make an inventory of excise products and reproduction material in stock as of 31st December of the year for which they are making the calculation.

X - TAX AND CONTROL STAMPS

Article 23

(1) Tobacco products on the market in Bosnia and Herzegovina must be labelled with tax stamps. The form, content and protection of tax stamps, printing procedure, safeguarding and handling shall be prescribed in a separate enactment by the Governing Board.

(2) Alcoholic drinks and wines on the market within the Bosnia and Herzegovina territory must be marked with control stamps. The form, content and protection of control stamps, printing procedure, safeguarding and handling shall be prescribed in a separate enactment by the Governing Board.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, alcoholic drinks not exceeding 5% of alcohol content may be released into free circulation without control stamps.

(4) Tax and control stamps shall be issued by the Authority at a taxpayer's request.

(5) The taxpayer must report to the Authority the retail prices of tobacco products before releasing them into free circulation.

(6) For tobacco products, alcoholic drinks and wine the taxpayer shall be required to glue tax i.e. control stamps on a package intended for retail sale in the manner which prevents the use of the content without damaging the tax or control stamp (beneath cellophane or other wrapping excise goods are coated with and the like).

(7) Tobacco products, alcoholic drinks and wine without tax or control stamps shall be considered excise products on which excise duty has not been calculated, except for alcoholic drinks referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article.

(8) Tobacco products, alcoholic drinks and wine for exported, except for those that are sold in duty-free shops, specialised warehouses and free zones, need not be marked with tax or control stamps, but the words "samo za izvoz" or in English "for export only" must be impressed on the package or on a special stamp.

XI - CONTROL OF CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF EXCISE DUTIES

Article 24

- (1) Control of calculation and payment of excise duty shall be performed by the Authority.

- (2) If the ITA establishes through control that the taxpayer has not calculated, accurately calculated and/or paid excise duty, it shall issue a decision on determining the tax liability and order its payment.

- (3) If it is established during the control that accounts have not been kept or have not been kept properly, the ITA shall establish the tax liability on the basis of available data. If such data do not exist, that is, if they are not available, the determination of the tax liability shall be carried out by way of comparison with another taxpayer who carries out the same or similar activity under the same or similar conditions.

XII - LEGAL REMEDIES

Article 25

- (1) The taxpayer shall have the right to lodge an appeal against the decision referred to in Article 24, paragraph 2 and 3 of this Law within 15 days from the date of receiving the decision.

- (2) The appeal shall be lodged with the Authority's Director via the responsible tax authority that issued the first-instance decision.

- (3) The appeal shall not postpone the execution of the decision.

XIII - TAX REFUND

Article 26

- (1) The taxpayer that exports excise products for which excise duty was previously paid shall be entitled to the refund of the amount paid.

- (2) The taxpayer referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall submit to the Authority a request for refund of excise duty paid.

- (3) The taxpayer that previously paid excise duty, which he was not required to pay, shall be entitled to the refund of the amount paid in excise duty, interests, costs of enforced collection and/or fine, unless he calculated and collected excise duty from another person.

XIV - PENAL PROVISIONS

Article 27

(1) A legal entity and an entrepreneur shall be penalised for a misdemeanour by a fine ranging from KM 3,000 to KM 20,000:

1. if they fail to calculate or incorrectly calculate excise duty (Article 5);
2. if they do not report the location where they perform their activity (Article 6, paragraph 3);
3. if the document that accompanies excise product or excise product itself does not display information on composition of raw material, type, quality and other characteristics essential for the determination of tax liability, or if these data are incorrect, or if an invoice does not contain prescribed data (Article 15);
4. if they do not install measuring instruments and devices or do not obtain a certificate from the responsible metrology authority (Article 16);
5. if they do not pay excise duty to a prescribed account or do not pay it within a prescribed period (Article 2 and Article 18);
6. if they do not keep prescribed records (Article 20 and 21);
7. if they do not make an inventory of excise products in stock and reproduction material (Article 22);
8. if they do not report retail prices of tobacco products to the Authority prior to their releasing into free circulation, or if they are sold at prices higher or lower than the reported ones (Article 23, paragraph 5);
9. if they release tobacco products and alcoholic drinks into free circulation without marking each individual excise product with a tax or control stamp, except for alcoholic drinks of up to 5% of alcohol (Article 23).

(2) The responsible physical person employed with the legal person shall be penalised for the misdemeanour referred to in paragraph 1 of this article by a fine ranging from km 1,000 to km 10,000.

(3) Excise products found on the market without fixed tax or control stamps, except for alcoholic drinks of up to 5% of alcohol, shall be seized and destroyed under the supervision of Authority.

XV - INTERIM AND FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 28

(1) The Governing Board shall, within 30 days from the date this Law enters into force, issue regulations on the manner of calculation and payment of excise duties, content and manner of keeping records, developing and submitting of monthly and annual reports.

(2) The Governing Board shall, within a period of 60 days from the date this Law enters into force, issue:

1. regulations on the installation of measuring instruments and powers of the Authority referred to in Article 16 of this Law;
2. regulations on printing and issuing of tax and control stamps.

(3) In the period until and within the deadlines stipulated in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article the Governing Board adopts complete regulations for the application of this Law in order to achieve secure stability of public revenue and most favourable treatment of taxpayers, the Governing Board may, in situations which are not fully or appropriately resolved in temporary provisions for the application of this Law, chose to apply throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina territory relevant provisions or parts of those provisions which were previously in use in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, RS and Brcko District.
